F	\checkmark	Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:
		Payment of restitution shall be due and payable in full immediately. However, if the defendant is unable to pay in full immediately, the special assessment and restitution may be paid through the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. The court, having considered the defendant's financial resources and ability to pay, orders that any balance still owed at the time of release shall be paid in installments of $100 per month to begin 60 days after the defendant's release from prison. At the time of the defendant's release, the probation officer shall take into consideration the defendant's ability to pay the restitution ordered and shall notify the court of any needed modification of the payment schedule. Any payment that is not payment in full shall be divided proportionately among the victim(s) named. Restitution in this case shall bear interest at the lawfully prescribed rate.
Unle impr Resp	ess the isoni onsi	e court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during nent. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financiability Program, are made to the clerk of the court.
The	defer	ndant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.
